

NJSBF to Present Medal of Honor Awards at September 18th Awards Dinner

The New Jersey State Bar Foundation's highest award—the prestigious Medal of Honor—will be presented to the Hon. Marie White Bell, a retired superior court judge in Burlington County and Joseph P. LaSala, a partner in the law firm of McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter LLP in Morristown. The award, given each year to those who have made exemplary contributions to improving the justice system and enhancing New Jersey's legal legacy, will be presented at the Foundation's Annual Medal of Honor Awards Dinner Reception on Monday, September 18, at The Palace at Somerset Park in Somerset.

Most Popular NJSBF Publication Available Again

One of the most popular publications that the New Jersey State Bar Foundation publishes is Consumer's Guide to New Jersey Law. Giving an overview of 24 different areas of law, including wills, divorce, auto insurance, employment discrimination, and so much more, the publication has been out of print for quite some time.

The Consumer's Guide to New Jersey Law was funded by a grant from Investors Foundation
