

New Leadership Takes Helm at the New Jersey State Bar Foundation

A partner at McCarter & English who served as president of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) in 2011-12 is the new president of the New Jersey State Bar Foundation (NJSBF), the association's philanthropic arm.

Susan A. Feeney, a partner in the McCarter & English Tax and Employee Benefits Practice Group, said her goals for the year include highlighting the organization's 60th anniversary, seeking alternative funding, continuing to spread the word of the foundation's myriad educational programs and evaluating new ways to deliver those programs.

"The work of the foundation is, in my mind, the heart and soul of the NJSBA," Feeney said. "It is where lawyers volunteer their time to educate the community and make our state a better place."

Read the Press Release

Reserve Your Tickets Now for the NJSBF Medal of Honor Awards Dinner

Congratulations to the Hon. Linda R. Feinberg and Justin P. Walder Esq., the NJSBF's 2018 Medal of Honor Recipients. Please join us on Monday, September 17, 2018 at The Palace at Somerset Park, Somerset to support the work of the Foundation and celebrate these deserving honorees.

See details

NJSBF Offers Sponsorship Opportunities for Medal of Honor Dinner

As it salutes its Medal of Honor recipients - Hon. Linda R. Feinberg and Justin P. Walder - the New Jersey State Bar Foundation is offering sponsorship opportunities for its Annual Awards Dinner, as well as the opportunity to co-sponsor its High School Mock Trial Competition for a year.

Read the Press Release

West Morris Mendham High School Takes Mock Trial Title

West Morris Mendham High School has been named the state champion in the 2018 Vincent J. Apruzzese High School Mock Trial Competition.

The Morris County high school, which also won the state title last year, competed against Mainland Regional High School of Atlantic County in the final competition held at the New Jersey Law Center on March 26.

Read the Press Release

Foundation Accepting Submissions for 7th Annual Art Show

The New Jersey State Bar Foundation is now accepting submissions for its Seventh Annual Art Show. The juried show is open to artwork created by lawyers, judges, law professors, law students and other law-related professionals.

Deadline for submission is Friday, July 13, 2018, with notice of acceptance in the show by Friday, August 24, 2018.

Read the Press Release and Register

New Jersey State Bar Foundation: Celebrating Six Decades of Informed Citizens

In the 60 years since the New Jersey State Bar Association created a nonprofit corporation, countless New Jersey citizens have been enriched by the work of the New Jersey State Bar Foundation (NJSBF).

These six decades have seen the establishment of programs that continue to impact New Jersey civic life today, from mock trial competitions to teacher trainings on bullying prevention and conflict resolution; from examinations of pressing societal issues like domestic violence to publications and programs that explain the intricacies of the law to every age group.

Read the Press Release

Violence Prevention and Anti-Bias Summer Trainings

The Foundation is conducting five trainings this summer—three workshops in the Why We Bully series, as well as an Elementary Conflict Resolution training and The Role of the School Climate Team training. There are still spots available in The Role of the School Climate Team training to be held August 15. To register, click here.

To be placed on a waiting list for a training that is closed, please email Elissa Zylbershlag at ezylbershlag@njsbf.org. Registration links are released two months prior to training dates. To be the first to learn about upcoming trainings, sign up for our educator email list here.

New Jersey State Bar Foundation
1-800 FREE LAW | jmiller@njsbf.org | www.njsbf.org

