

Informed Citizens
Are Better Citizens

LAW-RELATED EDUCATION

FREE PROGRAMS AND RESOURCES

The New Jersey State Bar Foundation, a nonprofit educational and philanthropic organization, offers a wide variety of free law-related education programs and services for New Jersey teachers and their students such as:

WHY WE BULLY Educators have the option to attend one or all of the training sessions in this series: Unconscious Bias, Talking About Race and Understanding HIB Characteristics;

THE ROLE OF THE SCHOOL CLIMATE TEAM focuses on how to be proactive in creating a positive climate;

CONFLICT RESOLUTION introduces methods to address normal conflict among students;

PEER MEDIATION for educators who believe the students can have power themselves to solve conflict;

SOCIAL EMOTIONAL CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT offers SEL lessons and skills designed to promote positive character traits;

HOW TO TEACH THE HOLOCAUST for educators who want to know effective pedagogy to teach the Holocaust;

BILL OF RIGHTS BULLETIN, a newsletter for elementary and middle school students that explains the Bill of Rights in plain language;

VINCENT J. APRUZZESE HIGH SCHOOL MOCK TRIAL COMPETITION;

COURTROOM ART CONTEST for high school students;

THE LEGAL EAGLE, a newspaper for middle school students;

RESPECT, a newsletter about law and diversity for middle and high school students;

THE INFORMED CITIZEN a civics blog of the NJSBF;

MINI-COURT LESSON PLANS AND ACTIVITIES for grades K–2;

SPEAKERS BUREAU covering many law-related topics;

LAW FAIR COMPETITION and programs for grades 3–6;

LAW ADVENTURE COMPETITION and programs for grades 7 and 8;

MOCK TRIAL WORKSHOP for elementary and middle school teachers;

MOCK TRIAL WORKSHOP for high school teachers and lawyer-coaches; and

LAW-RELATED PUBLICATIONS.

These are just some of our services. All are available free of charge.

For more information, please visit the New Jersey State Bar Foundation online at njsbf.org or call toll-free at 1-800-FREE LAW. Follow us on social media— @NJStateBarFdn can be found on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, or check out our YouTube videos.

The New Jersey State Bar Foundation is a New Jersey professional development provider.

NEW JERSEY STATE BAR FOUNDATION
New Jersey Law Center
One Constitution Square
New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1520
1-800-FREE LAW | NJSBF.org

FREE NJSBF PUBLICATIONS

The following FREE publications may be obtained by visiting the New Jersey State Bar Foundation's website at njsbf.org or calling 1-800-FREE LAW. Orders may be filled in single copies or in bulk for school and community groups. Orders for the following publications will be filled as long as supplies last. Some publications are available online only, as noted.

SCHOOL-BASED PUBLICATIONS

BILL OF RIGHTS BULLETIN is a newsletter packed with articles on the Bill of Rights, as well as crossword puzzles, word searches, constitutional trivia, facts about our founding fathers and much more. This publication is geared to elementary and middle school students.

HIGH SCHOOL MOCK TRIAL WORKBOOK contains the procedures, rules and mock trial case for the annual Vincent J. Apruzzese High School Mock Trial Competition. ONLINE ONLY

MINI-COURT TEACHER'S GUIDE provides two mock trial lesson plans and related classroom activities and resources. Designed to introduce age-appropriate legal concepts to children in kindergarten through second grade.

MOCK TRIAL EXERCISE BOOKLETS are available for grades three through six and for grades seven and eight. The booklets feature the winning Law Fair and Law Adventure original mock trial cases from previous competitions. ONLINE ONLY

LAW FAIR AND LAW ADVENTURE COMPETITION BOOKLETS provide rules and procedures for these mock trial contests for grades three to six and seven and eight respectively. ONLINE ONLY

STUDENTS' RIGHTS HANDBOOK was written by the American Civil Liberties Union of New Jersey and addresses the responsibilities and rights affecting students in school today. ONLINE ONLY

HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS OF NEW JERSEY AND THE UNITED STATES contains the Declaration of Independence, The Articles of Confederation, as well as the U.S. and New Jersey Constitutions. ONLINE ONLY

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT PLAGIARISM discusses different forms of plagiarism including copying out of encyclopedias and cutting and pasting information directly from the Internet.

CONSTITUTIONALLY NEW JERSEY is a 12-page newsletter devoted to the New Jersey Constitution, and companion piece to the Bill of Rights Bulletin. ONLINE ONLY

TURNING 18 IN NJ covers issues relevant to becoming an adult, including establishing credit, being a good citizen and much more. ONLINE ONLY

PUBLICATIONS FOR ADULTS

AIDS AND THE LAW IN NEW JERSEY (second edition) is co-sponsored with the Hyacinth AIDS Foundation and covers such topics as confidentiality, discrimination, insurance and referrals.

CONSUMER'S GUIDE TO NEW JERSEY LAW gives an overview of 24 areas of law, including wills, divorce, auto insurance and much more.

DISABILITY LAW: A LEGAL PRIMER (sixth edition) was cosponsored with the Essex County Bar Association and helps individuals with disabilities and their advocates understand their legal rights. Among the topics that this 64-page booklet examines are Medicaid, guardianship, Social Security, workers' compensation, Medicare, special education and estate planning.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: THE LAW AND YOU (third edition) examines the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act and the legal process for obtaining temporary and permanent restraining orders. In addition, the publication includes phone numbers for domestic violence services in all 21 counties and a domestic violence checklist provided by the NJ Division on Women to assist victims in documenting their abuse.

EDUCATIONAL GUIDE FOR TRIAL JURORS (third edition) explains the important role of jurors within our judicial system and how lawsuits are tried. A juror's frequently asked questions are answered in this guide, which was produced with the assistance of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

LAW POINTS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS (third edition) is published in a question-and-answer format, and outlines several topics of interest to seniors, including Medicare, Social Security and guardianship. The publication features large print type, making it easier to read for those with impaired vision.

RESIDENTIAL CONSTRUCTION AND RENOVATION: A LEGAL GUIDE FOR NEW JERSEY HOMEOWNERS helps homeowners navigate the laws surrounding home repair contracts and renovations. ONLINE ONLY

STARTING AND SUCCEEDING WITH A NEW BUSINESS examines everything a new entrepreneur needs to know when starting a new business. ONLINE ONLY

A BASIC GUIDE TO PERSONAL BANKRUPTCY (second edition) explains the different types of personal bankruptcy options available and the advantages and disadvantages of each.