

Looking for Civics?

Below are just some of the FREE civics materials available from the New Jersey State Bar Foundation. Questions, contact Jodi L. Miller at jmiller@njsbf.org.

Beyond the Bill of Rights is a 24-page newsletter that focuses on the 17 amendments added to the U.S. Constitution after the Bill of Rights was passed in 1791. (geared toward middle and high school students)

The Bill of Rights Bulletin is a 24-page newsletter containing 10 articles relevant to the Bill of Rights, along with puzzles, constitutional trivia, and much more. (geared toward elementary and middle school students)

The Legal Eagle, our legal newspaper for kids (grades 5 and up) and Respect, our diversity newsletter (grades 6 and up) are both published three times a year.

The Informed Citizen, a civics blog of the NJSBF, explains civics-related topics in plain language. Every blog post includes discussion questions, providing a ready-made lesson plan.

Subscribe to the blog and you will be notified via email when a new post is added.
