

Peer Mediation Additional Resources

Association for Conflict Resolution, www.acrnet.org

The mission of ACR is to enhance the practice and public understanding of conflict resolution.

Recommended Standards for School-Based Peer Mediation Programs from ACR, https://www.creducation.net/resources/Recommended_Standards_Final_Formatted.pdf

The Center for Justice and Peacebuilding, list of “The Little Books”

<https://emu.edu/cjp/resources/little-books>

The Community Board Program, www.communityboards.org

Community Boards is recognized internationally for our pioneering work with youth and schools. We can provide your school with a variety of proven techniques for resolving school-based conflicts.

Conflict Resolution Education Connection, www.creducation.net

The Conflict Resolution Education Connection is a web site devoted to the promotion of conflict resolution education throughout the world.

Creative Response to Conflict, www.crc-global.org

Creative Response to Conflict (CRC) is a global non-profit organization that educates individuals and groups to transform conflict into positive and constructive experiences that contribute to building a just and peaceful world.

Local Municipal Alliances, www.nj211.org/municipal-alliances

The Municipal Alliance Committee is the heart of each community's alcohol and drug abuse prevention efforts. They also provide funding for conflict resolution and peer mediation programs.