DO NOT open the door; stay calm.

Ask for the reason for their presence (and request an interpreter if needed).

If they ask to enter your home, ask if they have a warrant signed by a judge, and if they do, request that they show it (through the window or slide it under the door).

◇ you have the right to demand a warrant before opening the door.

REMEMBER:

An administrative Warrant of Deportation/Removal DOES NOT grant ICE permission to enter premises.

◇ Only a judicial warrant allows ICE to enter your home.

ERO (ICE) Reporting

In the past, many times you didn't need an attorney to report to ICE.

However, now it is recommended that you contact your attorney before you go to ICE - as there is a heightened risk of detention.
